

I ask to to protect the ISP firms that established the internet and have provided excellent personalized service at the local level. I have appreciated having local service from a provider located right in my community. The proposed actions will benefit only the large national providers, and will squash competition. Thank you.